

TIME	EVENT
	If you cannot attend one of these free sessions, consider running your own safety activity in your workplace during Safe Work Month. A list of suggested safety activities can be found at www.safework.sa.gov.au VENUE Loxton Agricultural and Horticultural Society's Show, Bookpurnong Terrace, Loxton 11.00AM OFFICIAL LAUNCH OF SAFE WORK MONTH 2009 Hear the inspiring story of Graeme Drew, winner of the 2009 Australian of the Year – Local Hero Award. Join renowned business leader Tom Phillips, AM, the SafeWork SA Advisory Committee and community leaders to open Safe Work Month in Loxton. The launch kicks off a week of FREE safety-related workshops and events at venues across the north-east. All welcome.
SHOW ENTRY Gate fee $8.50

TUESDAY 6 October 2009

TIME	EVENT
9.00AM TO 10.00AM Free Ref: W01	VENUE Berri Resort Hotel, Riverview Drive, Berri TOWARDS SAFER CONSTRUCTION Speakers: Kym Miller and Darren McAllister – SafeWork SA Content: See and hear the latest practical safety information for construction: safe work at height, electrical safety, public safety around building work, who's responsible for what in sub-contracting, and more. Audience: Small to medium builders, sub-contractors, health and safety representatives and OHSW committees in the construction industry.
10.30AM TO 12.00NOON Free Ref: W02	DEADLY DELIVERIES – MAKING LOADING AND UNLOADING SAFER Speakers: Ben Tugwell and Paul Ploenges – SafeWork SA Content: How safe are your trucking and forklift operations? Find out how to improve safety performance through hazard identification, risk assessment and control implementation. Learn from the practical examples and tested solutions provided by SafeWork SA investigators experienced in the transport and storage industries. Audience: Small businesses that use trucks and forklifts.
12.30PM TO 1.30PM Free Ref: W03	LICENSED ASBESTOS REMOVALISTS' FORUM Speakers: Mandy Kay and Shelley Rowett – SafeWork SA Content: If you work as a licensed asbestos removalist, then this workshop is a must. Learn about asbestos regulations for South Australia and the specific processes required for asbestos removal jobs to be approved in this State. Audience: Licensed asbestos removalists.
4.00PM TO 5.00PM Free Ref: W04	THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS SYSTEM – WHAT'S IN STORE? Speaker: Bill Bourke – SafeWork SA Content: South Australia intends to join the new national industrial relations system on 1 January 2010. For the first time, private sector employers and employees will have the one set of industrial relations laws to deal with. This session will outline the implications for businesses and employees. Audience: Small to large businesses, contractors and employees.

TIME	EVENT
5.30PM TO 7.00PM Free Ref: W05	MANAGING SAFETY – A SMALL BUSINESS APPROACH Speakers: Kym Miller and Steve Dohnt – SafeWork SA Content: Want to make your small business safer? Confused about your obligations? This practical workshop will show you how to manage safety effectively in your workplace and protect your employees from injury and illness. You will be introduced to the 'Serious about Safe Business' kit and learn how easy it is to develop and implement a safety management system at work. Finger food provided. Audience: Small business owners, managers/supervisors and employees.
1.00PM TO 5.00PM Free Ref: W06	VENUE tafeSA Berri Campus, Room A27, Kay Avenue, Berri DON'T GET CAUGHT UP – A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO PLANT RISK ASSESSMENT Speakers: David Barrett, Colin Marsh and Glenn Farrell – SafeWork SA Content: Don't underestimate the dangers associated with plant. Learn how to conduct a practical hazard identification and risk assessment using a real piece of plant. Examine a series of case studies, discuss control measures and learn about the legal obligations of employers and plant owners. Safety shoes and glasses must be worn. Audience: Employers, employees, managers/supervisors, health and safety representatives and OHSW practitioners.
9.00AM TO 12.00NOON Free Ref: W07	VENUE Loxton Council Chamber, 29 East Terrace, Loxton CONTRACTOR MANAGEMENT FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT Speakers: A panel of legal, SafeWork SA and Local Government Association Workers Compensation Scheme representatives Content: What are the OHSW responsibilities of councils, contract managers and contractors? Is council the principal contractor? A systematic approach to contractor management is vital so that the risks to health and safety of contractors, employees and the general public are controlled. Learn what you need to know to keep everyone safe. Audience: Local government employees, contractors and sub-contractors.
12.00NOON TO 3.00PM Free Ref: W08	VENUE Natural Resource Management Centre, Coral Street, Loxton PLANT SAFETY FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT WORK Speaker: Glyn Duggan – SafeWork SA Content: What makes some local government work high-risk? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> hazardous mobile plant <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> remote locations <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> proximity to high-speed traffic Learn about the risk assessments that should be undertaken on civil construction plant and equipment. In this practical workshop you will identify and assess hazards and discuss appropriate controls. BBQ provided (12.00noon to 12.45pm followed by workshop). Audience: Local government employees, contractors and sub-contractors.

TIME	EVENT
3.30PM TO 5.00PM Free Ref: W09	VENUE Loxton High School, Bookpurnong Road, Loxton PASSPORT TO SAFETY – KEEPING OUR KIDS SAFE AT WORK Speaker: Meegan Brotherton – SafeWork SA Content: Young workers aged 15 to 24 years are one of the most vulnerable groups in the workplace. Passport to Safety, an online learning and test programme [www.passporttosafety.com/australia], increases their knowledge and awareness before they enter the workforce. Learn about the programme's success, opportunities for sponsors and supporters, and how teachers can access the programme for their students. Audience: Teachers, parents and potential sponsors/supporters.
5.30PM TO 7.00PM Free Ref: W10	SAFE COMMUNITIES – TURNING INTEREST INTO ACTION Speaker: Meegan Brotherton – SafeWork SA Content: Find out about the international Safe Communities network and how local programmes to increase safety can reduce the human, social and economic costs associated with injury. Finger food provided. Audience: Community leaders, injury prevention professionals, local government and the general community.

WEDNESDAY 7 October 2009

TIME	EVENT
9.00AM TO 10.00AM Free Ref: W11	VENUE Clare Country Club, White Hut Road, Clare TOWARDS SAFER CONSTRUCTION Speakers: Joe Paparella and John Forsyth – SafeWork SA Content: See and hear the latest practical safety information for construction: safe work at height, electrical safety, public safety around building work, who's responsible for what in sub-contracting, and more. Audience: Small to medium builders, sub-contractors, health and safety representatives and OHSW committees in the construction industry.
10.30AM TO 11.30AM Free Ref: W12	DEADLY DELIVERIES – MAKING LOADING AND UNLOADING SAFER Speakers: Ben Tugwell and Paul Ploenges – SafeWork SA Content: How safe are your trucking and forklift operations? Find out how to improve safety performance through hazard identification, risk assessment and control implementation. Learn from the practical examples and tested solutions provided by SafeWork SA investigators experienced in the transport and storage industries. Audience: Small businesses that use trucks and forklifts.
12.00NOON TO 1.00PM Free Ref: W13	ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION PRINCIPLES FOR OHSW PRACTITIONERS Speakers: Ben Tugwell and Paul Ploenges – SafeWork SA Content: Be prepared for the worst. OHSW practitioners may be required to investigate safety incidents at their work. In this session, SafeWork SA investigators will outline the framework, methods and key outcomes of accident investigation. Audience: Business owners, managers/supervisors, and OHSW practitioners at medium to large organisations.

TIME	EVENT
1.30PM TO 2.30PM Free Ref: W14	RISK ASSESSMENT – A PRACTICAL GUIDE Speakers: Michelle Horning, Ben Tugwell and Paul Ploenges – SafeWork SA Content: Risk assessment is the process of evaluating the probability and consequences of injury or illness arising from exposure to a hazard. This workshop will provide you with a practical understanding of principles and methods used to conduct a reliable risk assessment. Audience: Middle and senior managers, health and safety representatives, OHSW committee members, OHSW practitioners and risk advisors.
3.00PM TO 4.00PM Free Ref: W15	THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS SYSTEM – WHAT'S IN STORE? Speaker: Tony MacHarper – SafeWork SA Content: South Australia intends to join the new national industrial relations system on 1 January 2010. For the first time, private sector employers and employees will have the one set of industrial relations laws to deal with. This session will outline the implications for businesses and employees. Audience: Small to large businesses, contractors and employees.
5.30PM TO 7.00PM Free Ref: W16	MANAGING SAFETY – A SMALL BUSINESS APPROACH Speakers: Steve Dohnt and Kym Miller – SafeWork SA Content: Want to make your small business safer? Confused about your obligations? This practical workshop will show you how to manage safety effectively in your workplace and protect your employees from injury and illness. You will be introduced to the 'Serious about Safe Business' kit and learn how easy it is to develop and implement a safety management system at work. Finger food provided. Audience: Small business owners, managers/supervisors and employees.
12.00NOON TO 3.00PM Free Ref: W17	VENUE Barbara J Long Function Centre, 229 Main North Road, Clare PLANT SAFETY FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT WORK Speaker: Glyn Duggan – SafeWork SA Content: What makes some local government work high-risk? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> hazardous mobile plant <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> remote locations <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> proximity to high-speed traffic Learn about the risk assessments that should be undertaken on civil construction plant and equipment. In this practical workshop you will identify and assess hazards and discuss appropriate controls. BBQ provided. Audience: Local government employees, contractors and sub-contractors.

TIME	EVENT
3.30PM TO 5.00PM Free Ref: W18	VENUE Clare High School, Elliot Street, Clare PASSPORT TO SAFETY – KEEPING OUR KIDS SAFE AT WORK Speaker: Meegan Brotherton – SafeWork SA Content: Young workers aged 15 to 24 years are one of the most vulnerable groups in the workplace. Passport to Safety, an online learning and test programme [www.passporttosafety.com/australia], increases their knowledge and awareness before they enter the workforce. Learn about the programme's success, opportunities for sponsors and supporters, and how teachers can access the programme for their students. Audience: Teachers, parents and potential sponsors/supporters.
5.30PM TO 7.00PM Free Ref: W19	SAFE COMMUNITIES – TURNING INTEREST INTO ACTION Speaker: Meegan Brotherton – SafeWork SA Content: Find out about the international Safe Communities network and how local programmes to increase safety can reduce the human, social and economic costs associated with injury. Finger food provided. Audience: Community leaders, injury prevention professionals, local government and the general community.

THURSDAY 8 October 2009

TIME	EVENT
9.00AM TO 10.00AM Free Ref: W20	VENUE The Farm Shed Museum and Tourism Centre, 50 Moonta Road, Kadina TOWARDS SAFER CONSTRUCTION Speaker: Scott Grindle – SafeWork SA Content: See and hear the latest practical safety information for construction: safe work at height, electrical safety, public safety around building work, who's responsible for what in sub-contracting, and more. Audience: Small to medium builders, sub-contractors, health and safety representatives and OHSW committees in the construction industry.
10.30AM TO 12.00NOON Free Ref: W21	DEADLY DELIVERIES – MAKING LOADING AND UNLOADING SAFER Speakers: Ben Tugwell and Paul Ploenges – SafeWork SA Content: How safe are your trucking and forklift operations? Find out how to improve safety performance through hazard identification, risk assessment and control implementation. Learn from the practical examples and tested solutions provided by SafeWork SA investigators experienced in the transport and storage industries. Audience: Small businesses that use trucks and forklifts.
4.00PM TO 5.00PM Free Ref: W22	THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS SYSTEM – WHAT'S IN STORE? Speaker: Jo Hatchard – SafeWork SA Content: South Australia intends to join the new national industrial relations system on 1 January 2010. For the first time, private sector employers and employees will have the one set of industrial relations laws to deal with. This session will outline the implications for businesses and employees. Audience: Small to large businesses, contractors and employees.

TIME	EVENT
5.30PM TO 7.00PM Free Ref: W23	MANAGING SAFETY – A SMALL BUSINESS APPROACH Speaker: Kym Miller – SafeWork SA Content: Want to make your small business safer? Confused about your obligations? This practical workshop will show you how to manage safety effectively in your workplace and protect your employees from injury and illness. You will be introduced to the 'Serious about Safe Business' kit and learn how easy it is to develop and implement a safety management system at work. Finger food provided. Audience: Small business owners, managers/supervisors and employees.
12.00NOON TO 3.00PM Free Ref: W24	VENUE Kadina Council Depot, South Terrace, Kadina PLANT SAFETY FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT WORK Speaker: Glyn Duggan – SafeWork SA Content: What makes some local government work high-risk? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> hazardous mobile plant <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> remote locations <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> proximity to high-speed traffic Learn about the risk assessments that should be undertaken on civil construction plant and equipment. In this practical workshop you will identify and assess hazards and discuss appropriate controls. BBQ provided. Audience: Local government employees, contractors and sub-contractors.

FRIDAY 9 October 2009

TIME	EVENT
9.00AM TO 10.00AM Free Ref: W25	VENUE Nuriootpa Vine Inn Hotel, 14 – 22 Murray Street, Nuriootpa TOWARDS SAFER CONSTRUCTION Speaker: Guy Wallace – SafeWork SA Content: See and hear the latest practical safety information for construction: safe work at height, electrical safety, public safety around building work, who's responsible for what in sub-contracting, and more. Audience: Small to medium builders, sub-contractors, health and safety representatives and OHSW committees in the construction industry.
10.30AM TO 11.30AM Free Ref: W26	DEADLY DELIVERIES – MAKING LOADING AND UNLOADING SAFER Speakers: Ben Tugwell and Paul Ploenges – SafeWork SA Content: How safe are your trucking and forklift operations? Find out how to improve safety performance through hazard identification, risk assessment and control implementation. Learn from the practical examples and tested solutions provided by SafeWork SA investigators experienced in the transport and storage industries. Audience: Small businesses that use trucks and forklifts.

TIME EVENT

- 12.00NOON
 TO 1.00PM
 Free
 Ref: W27
- ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION PRINCIPLES FOR OHSW PRACTITIONERS
Speakers: Ben Tugwell and Paul Ploenges – SafeWork SA
Content: Be prepared for the worst. OHSW practitioners may be required to investigate safety incidents at their work. In this session, SafeWork SA investigators will outline the framework, methods and key outcomes of accident investigation.
Audience: Business owners, managers/supervisors, and OHSW practitioners at medium to large organisations.
- 2.00PM
 TO 3.00PM
 Free
 Ref: W28
- RISK ASSESSMENT – A PRACTICAL GUIDE
Speaker: Jim Sinclair – SafeWork SA
Content: Risk assessment is the process of evaluating the probability and consequences of injury or illness arising from exposure to a hazard. This workshop will provide you with a practical understanding of principles and methods used to conduct a reliable risk assessment.
Audience: Middle and senior managers, health and safety representatives, OHSW committee members, OHSW practitioners and risk advisors.
- 4.00PM
 TO 5.00PM
 Free
 Ref: W29
- THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS SYSTEM – WHAT'S IN STORE?
Speaker: Stacey Vinall – SafeWork SA
Content: South Australia intends to join the new national industrial relations system on 1 January 2010. For the first time, private sector employers and employees will have the one set of industrial relations laws to deal with. This session will outline the implications for businesses and employees.
Audience: Small to large businesses, contractors and employees.
- 5.30PM
 TO 7.00PM
 Free
 Ref: W30
- MANAGING SAFETY – A SMALL BUSINESS APPROACH
Speakers: Kerry O'Donnell and Ruth Byrnes – SafeWork SA
Content: Want to make your small business safer? Confused about your obligations?
 This practical workshop will show you how to manage safety effectively in your workplace and protect your employees from injury and illness. You will be introduced to the 'Serious about Safe Business' kit and learn how easy it is to develop and implement a safety management system at work.
Finger food provided.
Audience: Small business owners, managers/supervisors and employees.

Venue Barossa Council Depot, Waldon Street, Tanunda

- 12.00NOON
 TO
3.00PM
 Free
 Ref: W31
- PLANT SAFETY FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT WORK
Speaker: Glyn Duggan – SafeWork SA
Content: What makes some local government work high-risk?
 hazardous mobile plant remote locations
 proximity to high-speed traffic
 Learn about the risk assessments that should be undertaken on civil construction plant and equipment. In this practical workshop you will identify and assess hazards and discuss appropriate controls.
BBQ provided.
Audience: Local government employees, contractors and sub-contractors.

Attend a FREE workshop for your chance to WIN a $500 gift voucher!

When you register and attend a Safe Work Month 2009 workshop, you have the chance to win a $500 gift voucher. There are four gift vouchers to be won, one for each week of Safe Work Month 2009. The number of entries per participant is not limited, so register and attend as many FREE workshops as you like to increase your chances of winning.